The Very Best and Cheapest Paint

IS W. T. DEVOE & CO'S MIXED.

Because it covers more surface, and does it better. It lasts longer, and costs no more than a cheap, impure article.

The Manufacturers guarantee its purity, we guarantee satisfaction in its use when applied according to directions.

You know that pigments and colors mixed by machinery are more thoroughly ground and blended than is possible with a stick in a barrel of lead and oil.

We can convince you in five minutes talk.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS BRIEFS.

Remember the poor on Thanksgiving Day:

Dr. Okeeffe and Felix are in Lewisburg, W. Va., on business.

Judge Ayers, of Lebanon, is attending court here this week.

J. M. Coffey says he entertained a large number of people on court day.

Mr. B. H. Baylor has returned after several weeks absence in Tennessee.

The subscription price of the Ladies Home Journal is $1.00 per year at Jacksons.

J. B. Boyer, the handsome and ubiquitous drummer is spending a day or two with homefolks.

Messrs Long and Harman have done their work well. The water pipes are laid, and pronounced O. K.

Mrs. C. C. Long has, as her guests this week two young ladies from Chatham Hill, Misses Ward and Buchanan.

Hon. A. St. Clair and W. B. Spratt, candidates elect to Senate and House of Virginia, were in attendance upon court this week.

Dr. Thos. E. Peery was in the city Wednesday. The Dr. spends from the 1st to the 15th of each month in Bluefield.

Mr. W. C. Hall Jr., first cousin to Mrs. W. C. Foster, representing a medicine company, has been in town several days this week.

There is on exhibition in Buston's window a double headed cabbage, raised by Mr. Caudill. There are two perfect heads on one stalk.

Rev. Mr. Buckner has returned from Huntington. While there he preached in Huntington and attended the marriage of Miss Sehon.

S. Aston, Jr. a popular young man of Russell, paid Tazewell a visit this week. He likes Tazewell and we don't wonder at his coming often.

You will be astonished at the low prices of our overcoats. Call and see for yourself.

HARMAN & BOTTIMORE.

H. R. Spracher, of Burk's Garden, A. J. Nash, of Bailey, J. T. Hopkins, of Thompson Valley, were among the prominent citizens who called on us court day.

S. C. Peery was in town Wednesday. He left the city in company with Capt. Fudge for the fields and woods for a hunt. Mrs. Peery is visiting home folks on Clear Fork.

Have you seen Buston's Automatic, reversible, self adjusting, extension, double back action, breech loading bargain counter. If not you have missed a treat.

Mr. L. R. Millard and his sister, Miss Mollie, of Blountville, Tenn., are with their brother, A. M. Millard. Mr. L. R. Millard will work at the carpenters trade while here.

Mrs. Jennie Thompson has moved into her handsome new residence on Tazewell avenue. Her son Sam, who was ill so long, is alright except his speech, which is not entirely restored.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Groseclose, and Miss Fannie, were in the city the first of the week. Kelly called to see us and brought the baby with him. It is a treat to look at such a fine baby. We understand that the baby favors its mother.

CASTORIA.

The family signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

Harmen & Bottimore carry the largest exclusive line of mens boots and shoes in the town. Prices $1.25 to $4.50.

Will the subscriber who promised to pay his subscription in molasses please hurry up. It's mighty lonesome at our house without molasses.

We acknowledge with thanks a check for $2.00 from Wm. Mullin, of Falls Mills; to pay for his, and S. J. Tabor's subscription. These are the first subscriptions we have received from Falls Mills.

Mr. A. F. Hendricks has ventured again upon the treacherous and uncertain sea of journalism again. The first issue, the Weekly Register, is on our table. The paper is bright and new. We welcome the new comer, and wish it fair sailing.

An obstreperous cow got into our garden a few nights ago, and rooted out our potatoes, and deliberately, and with malice aforethought, eat and destroyed the entire lot. A few potatoes on subscription to go along with our molasses, will be in order.

NEW YORK RACKET STORE. Pocahontas, Va.

REMEMBER, we sell goods cheaper than any other house, but for cash only. Our prices are always subject to change to lower figures. Whenever our prices are advertised by others, you can come here, and find that ours are lower—for same quality of goods. We keep track of these things for our customers.

The following bought at auction and closing out sales (surplus stocks of manufactures etc.) at 20 to 50cts. on the dollar will give you some idea as to how we can and do sell goods:

Big assortment of Ladies' Hats that we sell at half the regular prices (expert trimmer in charge). Hat Trimmings—greatest variety, at one-fourth regular prices. Ladies' Walking Hats at 25 to 75cts., worth 75 cts. to $1.50, lot closed out by manufacturer at less than cost to make. In ribbons we have the finest ever brought to this region—some cost $3.50 per yard, regular, that we sell at $1.25, others cost $2 and $2.50 per yard, we sell at 75cts. and $1, other ribbons proportionately low. No. 2 all silk ribbons, in all colors at 3c. per yard, 25cts. per bolt (10 yards). No. 7 Velvet ribbon, (in black) at 5cts. per yard, worth 15cts. Laces, very much under regular prices. Everything in Glassware at prices just half sold for heretofore. Pretty patterns in Tumblers at 14cts. set (6). Half gallon pitchers 10cts. All wool hindsays at 15cts. yard, worth 25cts. Ladies silk-velvet and satin collars with bows of same material (entirely new) at from 10cts. to 48cts., worth 25cts. to $1.

Give us a call and see if we will not save you money on all purchases. Respectfully submitted to the cash trade only, by Catlett & Jenkins.
